

1st International Forensic Symposium Catania, Italy

The Archaeology and Anthropology of Forensic Human Remains

Chair

Professor Cristoforo Pomara

Honorary scientific board

- Professor Loredana Buscemi, Ancona
- Professor Carlo Campobasso, Naples
- Professor Giancarlo Divella, Torino
- Professor Francesco Introna, Bari
- Professor Daniele Malfitana, Catania
- Dr Rosalba Panvini, Catania

International speakers

- Professor Cristina Cattaneo, Milan
- Professor Eugenia Cunha, Coimbra
- Professor Rimantas Jankauskas, Vilnius
- Dr Justina Kozakaitė, Vilnius
- Professor Nicholas Márquez-Grant, Cranfield
- Professor Kirsty Squires, Stoke-on-Trent
- Dr Rebeca Iglesias Domínguez, San Sebastián

Organizing committee

- Professor Giulio Di Mizio, Catanzaro
- Dr Massimiliano Esposito, Catania
- Professor Dario Piombino-Mascali, Vilnius
- Professor Monica Salerno, Catania
- Professor Francesco Sessa, Catania

REGISTER TO THE SYMPOSIUM FOR FREE (until October 25th, 2022 – no more than 100 participants)
Email to: sezionedimedicinalegalecatania@gmail.com

Day 1: 28 October 2022

h 9.00 “Welcome session and workshop introduction”

Professor Cristoforo Pomara and Professor Daniele Malfitana, Catania

h 10.00 Professor Cristina Cattaneo, Milan

“Forensic anthropology: past, present and future perspectives”

h 11.00 Professor Rimantas Jankauskas, Vilnius

“Forensic identification of soldiers from war contexts”

h 12.00 Professor Eugenia Cunha, Coimbra

“The employment of paleopathology in forensic anthropology cases”

h 13.00-15.00 free lunch

h 15.00 Professor Nicholas Márquez-Grant, Cranfield

“Mass graves from the Spanish civil war”

h 16.00 Dr Justina Kozakaitė, Vilnius

“Identification of Lithuanian partisans”

h 17.00 Roundtable with “Honorary scientific board”

Professor Carlo Campobasso, Professor Francesco Introna, Professor Daniele Malfitana, Dr Rosalba Panvini

“Speaking to the public: sharing personal experiences”

h 18.10 Discussion and Feedback

h 18.30 Naming ceremony of the forensic anthropology laboratory to Prof Guardabasso

End of day 1

Day 2: 29 October 2022

h 9.00 Professor Kirsty Squires, Stoke-on-Trent

“Ethics in Forensic Science and Bioarchaeology”

h 10.00 Miss Rebeca Iglesias Domínguez, San Sebastián

“The war in Ukraine: A Forensic Archaeology approach”

h 11.00 Roundtable with “Honorary scientific board” and “International speakers”

Professor Loredana Buscemi, Professor Francesco Introna, Professor Giancarlo Divella

“Biological Anthropology in Forensic Medicine: past, present and future directions”

h 12.30 Professor Cristoforo Pomara and Professor Francesco Introna, Discussion and Feedback

Conclusions